

FOCUS IN EDUCATION STUDIES

What is a focus?

A focus consists of at least 12 credit hours of courses in the same designator that are numbered 300 or higher.

Which classes qualify for Education Studies?

Any class numbered 300 or higher from the following areas:

- (D)
- (D)
- ()

Some classes that qualify for Education Studies:

- EDU 300 Human Growth and Development
- EDU 305 Introduction to Education
- EDU 316 Educational Measurement and Assessment
- EDU 445 Introduction to Educational Research
- EDU 446 Strategies for Educational Research
- EDU 522 Teaching Methods for Physical Education
- EDU 523 Teaching Methods for Leadership
- ASL 326 Deaf Culture and Communication
- ASL 327 Deaf History and Culture
- ASL 400 Advocacy for Deaf Life

...and more!

*Some classes listed here are also in the College of Education directory.

